How Leadership Works at E10

At E10, our elders and deacons serve together on what we call the Church Board. Together, they share responsibility for governing the church, voting on decisions that range from approving our statement of beliefs to purchasing the land behind the church. In addition to these shared responsibilities, our bylaws assign certain responsibilities specifically to the elders, which are:

1. Overseeing personnel matters, including staff salaries.
2. Evaluating and approving nominations for elders and deacons before those names go before the congregation for a vote.
3. Serving on the search committee that recommends a new lead minister for the congregation to vote on.
4. Overseeing matters of church discipline and restoration.
5. Serving as the spiritual leaders and overseers of the church.
